

Black Mathematicians Project
Mrs. Macon's Math Class
Due:February 6, 2022

	Excellent	Good	Fair	Poor
Education 25%	Describes Educational Background with details (formal schooling, high school, degrees and Universities)	Describes educational background	Lists or only briefly describes educational background	Does not include educational background
Life Accomplishments 25%	Describes Major Accomplishments with details	Describes Major Accomplishments	Lists or only briefly describes major accomplishments	Does not include major accomplishment
Impact 25%	Describes Impact on society and why it is important to remember their lives with details	Describes Impact on society and why it is important to remember their lives	Lists or briefly describes impact on society and why it's important to remember their lives	Does not include impact on society and why it's important to remember their lives
Presentation: Google Slides, Video, visual. Be creative. Make a visual that represents something you learned about the person. Include the information on the representation. 25%	Neat and organized, easy to understand	Mostly neat and organized; easy to understand	Not neat or organized and somewhat difficult to understand	Messy and not able to understand
Score				